Mini Antler Basket $52 4 hrs All Levels
 Diameter: 5" across top 3" deep, sizes will vary
 Anne Bowers

A fun little antler basket to make. This one is constructed using a small white tailed deer antler, dyed reed, yarn, leather, seagrass and a few other items. No two will be alike! An antler button will be fastened to the bottom of the basket so it sets well – antler buttons included for embellishment.

Tapas Pot $60 6 hrs Intermediate
 Width: 6" Height: 7" w/o handle
 Anne Bowers

This bean pot shaped basket starts with a wood base & dyed spokes. Techniques include twining, three rod wale and continuous weave. The fun starts when students choose from a wide variety of chenille yarns, wire (various) and waxed linen to create a landscape in the center of the basket. Rim is lashed with waxed linen. Wire bale handle.

Pegasus $52 6 hrs Intermediate
 Diameter: 5" Height: 5"
 Flo Hoppe

Pegasus has a gently rounded shape at the bottom. The central arrow pattern is made with wide cane with French randing woven in two directions. The top weave is braid weave, but because of the uneven number of spokes the pattern looks difference than normal. It is what the Japanese have poetically named "pine needles".
